

CONTENTS

General Editors' Preface	9
Acknowledgments	11
Abbreviations	13
ECCLESIASTES	15
Bibliography for Ecclesiastes	17
INTRODUCTION TO ECCLESIASTES	21
A. Authorship	22
B. Date	24
C. Place of Origin	27
D. Audience, Occasion, Purpose	28
E. Sociological and Cultural Issues	28
F. Textual History and Composition	29
1. Text	29
2. Canon	30
3. Composition	30
G. Literary Features	30
1. Genre	30
2. Linguistic Style	31
3. Literary Style	31
4. Structure	32
H. Theological Themes	34
1. Vanity of Vanities	34
2. Sovereignty of God	35
3. Limitations of Wisdom and Righteousness	35
4. Doctrine of Retribution, and Limitations	36
5. Profit and Portion	36
6. Wealth and Contentment	37
7. Ethics	37
I. Hermeneutical Issues	38
1. Diversity of Interpretation	38
2. Dealing with Contradictions	39
3. Interpretive History	39
4. Wesleyan Interpretation	39
J. Liturgical Use of Ecclesiastes	40
COMMENTARY ON ECCLESIASTES	41
I. Vanity of Vanities (Title and Theme) (1:1-2)	41
A. Title (1:1)	42
B. Theme (1:2)	43

II. There Is No Profit from Toil (Prologue) (1:3-11)	47
A. No One Leaves a Surplus (1:3)	48
B. Nothing Changes (1:4-8)	51
C. Nothing Is New or Remembered (1:9-11)	54
III. I Was King in Jerusalem (Introduction) (1:12—2:26)	59
A. I Studied and Explored (1:12-18)	61
B. I Tested Pleasure and Wealth (2:1-11)	66
C. I Tested Wisdom (2:12-16)	71
D. I Began to Despair (2:17-23)	73
E. What to Do? Enjoy! (2:24-26)	75
IV. A Time for Everything (3:1-22)	79
A. In God's Time (3:1-8)	80
B. What to Do? Enjoy! (3:9-22)	85
(A Time for Judgment [3:16-17])	89
V. What Is Better? (4:1-16)	93
A. Better Not to Be Born (4:1-3)	94
B. Better a Little with Contentment (4:4-6)	96
C. No Contentment (4:7-8)	97
D. Better Two than One (4:9-12)	98
E. Better Poor but Wise (4:13-16)	99
VI. Let Your Words Be Few (5:1-9)	103
A. Conduct Before God (5:1-7)	104
B. Oppression and Justice (5:8-9)	106
VII. Limitations of Wealth (5:10—6:9)	109
A. No Satisfaction (5:10-12)	110
B. Grievous Evil (5:13-17)	112
C. Contentment (5:18-20)	113
B'. Evil (6:1-6)	114
A'. No Satisfaction (6:7-9)	116
VIII. Limitations of Wisdom (6:10—7:14)	119
A. Sovereignty of God:
Humans Do Not Have Foreknowledge (6:10-12)	120
B. Don't Depreciate the Past/Present in Favor of the Future (7:1-4)	121
(Wisdom Is Still Valuable [7:5-6])	123
C. Wisdom Is Limited (7:7)	124
B'. Don't Depreciate the Future/Present in Favor of the Past (7:8-10)	125
(Wisdom Is Still Valuable [7:11-12])	126
A'. Sovereignty of God: Enjoy Life (7:13-14)	127

IX. Judgment, Righteousness, and Wisdom Are Elusive (7:15-29)	129
A. Judgment Is Elusive (7:15-18)	130
B. Righteousness Is Elusive (7:19-22)	132
C. Wisdom Is Elusive (7:23-24)	133
D. There Is Judgment; Righteousness and Wisdom Are Superior (7:25-29)	134
X. The Days of the Wicked Will Not Lengthen (8:1-17)	139
A. Sovereignty of the King (8:1-9)	140
B. Mystery of Retribution (8:10-15)	144
C. Sovereignty of God and Limitation of Wisdom (8:16-17)	146
XI. The Same Destiny Overtakes All (9:1-18)	149
A. The Same Destiny for Righteous and Wicked (9:1-6)	150
B. Enjoy Life (9:7-10)	153
C. Success Is Unpredictable (9:11-12)	154
D. The Results of Wisdom Are Unpredictable (9:13-18)	155
XII. Flies in the Ointment (10:1-20)	159
A. Folly Can Outweigh Wisdom (10:1-7)	160
B. Results Can Be Unpredictable (10:8-15)	162
C. Benefits of a Wise King (10:16-20)	163
XIII. Cast Your Bread upon the Waters (Conclusion) (11:1—12:7)	167
A. Generosity (11:1-2)	169
B. Knowledge Is Limited (11:3-6)	170
C. Happiness in Youth (11:7-10)	171
D. Remember Your Creator (12:1-7)	174
XIV. Pleasing Words (Theme and Epilogue) (12:8-14)	183
A. Theme: Vanity of Vanities (12:8)	184
B. The Value of Wisdom (12:9-12)	184
C. Fear of God, and Justice (12:13-14)	186
LAMENTATIONS	189
Bibliography for Lamentations	191
INTRODUCTION TO LAMENTATIONS	193
A. Authorship	194
B. Date	194
C. Place of Origin	195
D. Occasion	195
E. Purpose	195
F. Sociological and Cultural Issues	196
G. Textual History and Composition	196

H. Literary Features	197
1. Genre	197
2. Linguistic Style	198
3. Literary Style	198
I. Theological Themes	201
1. Suffering	201
2. Sovereignty of God	201
3. Suffering Is the Result of Sin	201
4. Repentance	201
5. Hope	201
COMMENTARY ON LAMENTATIONS	203
I. Poem One: How Deserted (1:1-22)	203
A. How Deserted Lies the City (1:1-11)	204
B. Look at My Suffering! (1:12-22)	211
II. Poem Two: The Cloud of God's Anger (2:1-22)	219
A. The Cloud of God's Anger (2:1-12)	220
B. What Can I Say for You? (2:13-19)	224
C. Look, O LORD! (2:20-22)	226
III. Poem Three: I Am the Man (3:1-66)	229
A. I Have Seen Affliction (3:1-20)	230
B. Faithfulness, Hope, and Love (3:21-36)	233
C. We Have Sinned and Rebelled (3:37-54)	236
D. Hear My Plea! (3:55-66)	239
IV. Poem Four: The Gold Has Lost Its Luster (4:1-22)	243
A. Gold Is Treated like Clay (4:1-9)	244
B. Prophets and Priests Shed Blood (4:10-16)	245
C. We Looked in Vain for Help (4:17-22)	247
V. Poem Five: Remember, Yahweh (5:1-22)	251
A. Remember, O LORD! (5:1-18)	252
B. Restore Us, O LORD! (5:19-22)	255