

CONTENTS

About the Author	8
Foreword	9
Introduction: An Overview of Grace-Full Leadership	11
Section One: The Qualities of Grace-Full Leadership	15
1. Grace-full leaders are more concerned with spirit than style	17
2. Grace-full leaders are covenantal rather than contractual	24
3. Grace-full leaders view people as ends—not means	31
4. Grace-full leaders recognize the changeable from the changeless	39
5. Grace-full leaders seek significance, not just success	47
6. Grace-full leaders are responsive as well as responsible	57
7. Grace-full leaders are high-touch	64
8. Grace-full leaders maximize influence and minimize authority	70
9. Grace-full leaders are passionate	79
10. Grace-full leaders focus primarily on the body, not the head	86
Section Two: The Traits of Grace-Full Leaders	95
11. Grace-full leaders understand accountability	97
12. Grace-full leaders interact rather than react	107
13. Grace-full leaders follow their “knows”	115
14. Grace-full leaders are willing to follow as well as lead	123
15. Grace-full leaders maintain their balance	130
16. Grace-full leaders have double vision	138
17. Grace-full leaders “go deep”	146
18. Grace-full leaders are skilled meteorologists	155
19. Grace-full leaders anticipate through planning, pathfinding, planting, and prospecting	164
20. Grace-full leaders take care	171
Conclusion: The Challenge of Grace-Full Leadership	177
Notes	181
Bibliography	187