

Contents

Introduction	5
1. “Ears In, Fingers Out”	9
Best Practice: Board members understand the role, purpose, and function of the board.
2. Mission, Vision, and Values Drive Us	20
Best Practice: Board members know, communicate, and make decisions in light of the organization’s mission, vision, and values.
3. Think Questions	32
Best Practice: Board members ask the right questions.
4. Write It Down	47
Best Practice: Board members understand and embrace a board policy manual that contains the board-approved policies for effective and efficient governance of the organization.
5. Watch Your Words	57
Best Practice: Board members communicate with each other and address conflict situations as Christians.
6. Strong Boards Empower Effective Leaders	70
Best Practice: Board members relate to their leaders and constituency with one voice.
7. Integrity Matters	80
Best Practice: Board members intentionally engage in mutual accountability, including systematic board development and evaluation.
8. Take Time	92
Best Practice: Board members take time to process decisions, with no intentional surprises.
9. Yes! to Missional Change	102
Best Practice: Board members embrace change and resolve to work through transitions together and unite for the good of the Kingdom and the advancement of God’s mission.
10. Review/Revise/Redirect/Renew	115
Best Practice: Board members participate in assessing the effectiveness of prior decisions and collectively make appropriate adjustments.

11. Role Models of Generosity and Stewardship	127
Best Practice: Board members are outstanding examples of giving regularly and sacrificially to the church, college, or organization they serve.
12. Pass It On	141
Best Practice: Board members develop new leaders throughout the region for increased responsibilities and commitment to the organization.
Postscript	153
Appendix 1: For This We Stand	155
Appendix 2: Leader Effectiveness Review	157
Appendix 3: Leader Effectiveness Review Competency Grid	162
Appendix 4: Board Standing Policy Manual	165
Appendix 5: On Caring Enough to Confront	174
Appendix 6: Rules of the Road for Christlike Communication	177
Appendix 7: Rules of the Road for Christlike Conflict Management	178
Appendix 8: Rules of Engagement	180
Appendix 9: Board Survey	183
Appendix 10: Action Plan for Local Innovation	187
Appendix 11: Moving College Governance from Good to Great	190